

GED Study

Mondays and Fridays from 10:30-11:30

This is a study hour to help you prepare for the GED. Bring your study guides, questions and passions! Spend an hour of dedicated time preparing for the GED. Schedule a practice test when you are ready; talk with a tutor about where you still need help; build your knowledge base and increase your confidence.

This class is for 18 and older.

Literacy

Wednesdays from 10:30-11:30

and Thursdays from 5:00-6:00

No matter what level of help you need, from beginner to advanced, we are here. If you or someone you know has been missing out on all the finer points of reading; unable to fully communicate through correspondence; embarrassed to let anyone know that they cannot read; or simply wants to improve their reading skills, we are here to help.

ESOL Every Tuesday at 10:30-11:30
and Wednesday at 5:00-6:00

English as a Second Language classes have returned to Crestview Library with lessons, materials and experienced instruction from Augusta Whittle. Learners can expect a supportive and comfortable environment to improve their English among friends. They will enjoy working with native speakers to naturally learn English, practice speaking and make new friends.

Class is designed for adults, but children are welcome to come with their parents to learn also.
